FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, September 27th, 2016

On Tuesday, October 4th Dean of Students Kenyon Bonner will be hosting “Dialogue with the Dean,” a round-table discussion regarding diversity and inclusion on Pitt’s campus. The event will be at 7:00 pm in the O’Hara Dining Room, and RSVP is required.

The Central Oakland Neighborhood Block Party will be this Thursday from 5:30pm to 7:30pm at the OPDC Career Center, 294 Semple Street. Meet your neighbors and mingle with students and other Oakland residents, and enjoy free food and a free t-shirt at the final block party of the semester!

Chief of Staff Phil Anderson has approved one additional travel grant through the Undergraduate Conference Fund for Research. The recipient will be granted up to $250 through the SORC upon returning from the conference.

Mental Health Awareness Week will take place Monday, October 10-13th. SGB is currently looking for students to speak at the Mental Health Vigil on Thursday, October 13th from 7:30-8:30pm. Planned in conjunction with Active Minds, Talk About, Pitt Program Council, and Student Affairs, the week will contain events including the premiere of student-produced film, “Ward” and the lecture “Jordan Burnham: Survival, Recovery, Acceptance.” Tickets for the Jordan Burnham lecture will be available at the Pitt Program Council ticket window in the William Pitt Union starting Monday.
