FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tuesday, September 6th, 2016

Student Government Board would like to welcome all students back to campus, and hopes that everyone had an enjoyable Labor Day Weekend. SGB has been hard at work this summer and is very excited to continue to work with our amazing student body and faculty.

Chief of Staff Phil Anderson has approved nine grants through the Undergraduate Conference Fund for Research. The grants will be given to individuals who will be traveling to a variety of conferences throughout the country. Each recipient will be granted up to $250 through the SORC office upon returning from their respective conferences.

The Oakland Square Neighborhood Block Party will be this Thursday from 5:30pm to 7:30pm at Oakland Square Park on Dawson Street. Meet your neighbors and mingle with students and other Oakland, and enjoy free food and a free t-shirt!

There are currently eight open spots on the Elections Committee that are open to all students. Applications can be found on sgb.pitt.edu/joinus and must be submitted by 5 PM on Friday, September 9th. Interview notifications will be sent that evening by email. Please email Chairwoman Julia Lee with any questions at julia.lee@pitt.edu.
