FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thursday, February 16, 2017

Student Government Board has held the SGB debate and candidates continue to make their initiatives and ideas heard around campus. Election day is next week, and students may vote for the candidates or slates that they want to see make a difference at Pitt! Polls are open from 8am-8pm on Tuesday, February 21st, and students can vote at my.pitt.edu. Be sure to read our 2017 Voter Guide before you vote: <https://goo.gl/uVf5Uz>

Student safety continues to be a focus of the Board. SGB will be holding its Spring Safety Fair on Monday, February 20th in the WPU Assembly Room from 11am-3pm. Come and visit with Pitt Police, Residence Life, Study Abroad and so many more! There will be free food, prizes, and a chance to win a 40-inch flat-screen TV!

Arts & Sciences students: make your voice heard in this short survey! SGB Academic Affairs Committee wants your feedback on A&S advising. The results of the survey will be shared with The Advising Center with the goal to improve the advising experience.

Applications are now available for Pittsburgh Women's Leadership Experience! The Pittsburgh Women's Leadership Experience is an opportunity for young women leaders to strengthen their leadership abilities through mentorship, inspiring speakers, and enriching activities, beginning with an off-campus weekend retreat on the weekend of March 24th-25th. Interested freshmen, sophomore, and junior Pitt women are encouraged to apply to participate as mentees. Applications are due Friday, February 24 at 5:00 PM and can be found here: <https://form.jotform.com/pittsgb/pwle-2017>
