FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, March 22, 2017

Still interested in getting involved with SGB for the 2017-2018 term? SGB will host an open house on Monday, March 27th from 6-8pm in WPU 848 for all students interested. Board members, committee chairs, and standing committee members will be present to answer questions about the various opportunities and positions available. Most applications are due Friday, March 31st by 5pm and can be found here: <http://sgb.pitt.edu/joinus/>

SGB will be holding this month's Town Hall on Tuesday, March 28th at 9:30pm in Nordy's Place. Whether you are part of an organization or just a student with an idea, the monthly Town Hall is a chance to bring questions, concerns and feedback directly to SGB and connect with us for future meetings. Like and follow us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/PittSGB/>

Women's Empowerment Week is underway! This week, which began March 20th, is designed to begin discussion on campus about the importance of empowerment of all women and how we as members of the Pitt community can incorporate this work into our everyday lives. A full and detailed schedule of events can be found on our Facebook page: <https://goo.gl/WlkGCP>

Applications are currently open for student organizations to receive storage and/or office space! Visit our Services for Student Organizations page for requirements and links to each application: <http://sgb.pitt.edu/for-student-groups/>. Applications are due Friday, March 31st by 5pm.

Academic Affairs Committee is hosting a Microsoft Birthday Bash! This event will feature a panel of current and former Microsoft interns and Ambassadors, as well as free food and raffles, on Tuesday April 4th 5:30-7pm in the Lower Lounge of the WPU.
