10 APRIL 2018
Chief of Staff Arnold introduced the following bill, which was read for the first time.

17 APRIL 2018
Read the second time and voted on.

A BILL
TO RENEW THE COLLEGIATE READERSHIP PROGRAM

1 WHEREAS, the Collegiate Readership Program is designed to allow Pitt students access to select news publications;
2 WHEREAS, this year, Student Government Board moved to allow students access to online only materials, thus reducing paper waste and providing easier access to the publications;
3 WHEREAS, it is imperative as students and community members to be informed of current events, allowing students of the University of Pittsburgh to engage with issues they are passionate about;
4 WHEREAS, this year, over two-thirds of eligible Pitt students activated their New York Times online subscription, resulting in 268,778 articles being read, now, therefore, be it;
5 RESOLVED, on this 17th day of April in the year 2018, the University of Pittsburgh Student Government Board enacts the following revisions to the Student Government Board Governing Code:
Item 8.2.1.C  Change “Spring 2018 academic term” to “Spring 2019 academic term”, and be it further RESOLVED, that all numbering changes resulting from these revisions shall be automatic, pursuant to the rules set forth in items 1.1.1.0.4 and 1.1.1.0.5 of the Student Government Board Governing Code; and be it finally RESOLVED, this resolution shall be effective immediately upon adoption and shall reflect the changes shown in the attached document.

ADOPTED: this 17th day of April 2018 by a vote of 8 for, 0 against, and 0 abstentions.

Max Kneis, President
University of Pittsburgh Student Government Board
