Student Government Board Appoints New Board Member

For Immediate Release:

PITTSBURGH, PA (September 20, 2022) — This evening, the Student Government Board (SGB) appointed Ryan Young to serve as a Board Member for the remainder of the 2022-2023 academic year. SGB is thrilled to have Ryan join the board, and we look forward to seeing what he will accomplish.

Ryan is a junior studying Math, Physics, and Astronomy, and has served as the Lead Resident Assistant of Sutherland Hall, the inaugural president of the Frederick Honors Student Council, the Head Delegate of Pitt's Model United Nations Team, and an executive board member of TEDx @ Pitt.

Board Member Young said "I am humbled to have been selected for this role, and I look forward to working with the board to advance and advocate the needs of every single undergraduate student at Pitt."

Student Government Board President Danielle Floyd said "I would like to congratulate Ryan on his appointment to the board. He is qualified and extremely capable, and I look forward to working with him this year."
